

Are the media serving your community?

WORKSHOPS

Learn how media policy crafted in Washington affects media in your community.

Workshops will give you the chance to consider your own hopes for media that meet your community's needs, and to prepare a two-minute testimony to present at the forum.

All workshops are free and open to the public.

Monday, March 5

6:30 p.m.

Ohio Common Cause Office
50 W. Broad St, #1705

Contact: Scarlett Boulder,
614-224-2497

Tuesday, March 6

6:30 p.m.

Columbus Metropolitan Area
Church Council
Jefferson Conference Center
65 Jefferson Ave.

Contact: 614-461-7103

RAISE YOUR VOICE NOW — OR LOSE IT!

Do you want the media to do a better job of covering issues you care about? Do you want more quality journalism? Then don't miss your chance to testify at this public hearing.

The Federal Communications Commission and media industry lobbyists want to change the rules so one company can own more newspapers, radio stations and TV stations in places like Columbus. Now is your chance to weigh in.

The FCC is coming to listen to citizens before changing the rules. Tell FCC Commissioners how well media companies are — or aren't — serving your community. Don't let this unique opportunity to make your voice heard by policymakers you by!

Town Meeting on the Future of Media

Wednesday, March 7, 2007

5:30 p.m.

Broad Street Presbyterian Church
760 E. Broad St.

Columbus, Ohio 43215

Free parking available

*For more information, visit freepress.net/future or contact:
Amanda at Free Press, aballantyne@freepress.net, 612-849-0195
Scarlett at Common Cause Ohio, sboulder@commoncause.org, 614-224-2497*